OFFICE OF THE REGISTRAR OF REGULATIONS
AND ROYAL GAZETTE

Notice of Retirement

It is with both great reluctance and genuine pleasure that I announce the retirement of Susan MacIsaac, Chief Clerk of the Royal Gazette, after over 36 years of exemplary service to the Province of Nova Scotia. Susan's retirement is our great loss, but a well-earned respite for her.

Susan joined the Office of the Registrar of Regulations from the Department of Government Services in 1997 and soon became an integral part of our small family of staff, always quick to lend a hand around the office and to go the extra mile to ensure her clients' published materials were complete and correct the first time out. Susan was one of those remarkable employees who rarely ever missed a day of work—not in 36 years! Her quiet dedication and commitment to her work, her thoroughness and pride in ensuring that the Royal Gazette met her exceptional standards, and her unerring attention to detail will be missed and a challenge to replicate.

Please join me and all of Susan's co-workers and colleagues in our office and throughout the legal community in wishing Susan all the best in her retirement as she heads into the back nine.

You have earned it. You deserve it. All the best Sue!
