

Form 15

Request for Transfer

► Why complete this form?

Complete this form if the following statements are true:

- You are the spouse of one of the following:
 - a current or former member of a pension plan
 - the owner of a locked-in retirement account (LIRA) or of a life income fund (LIF).
- You do NOT live with your spouse and have no plans to do so in the future.
- Your spouse earned the pension benefit while working in Nova Scotia for an organization that is regulated by the Province of Nova Scotia.
- You have a certified copy of a court order or domestic contract regarding your share of the pension benefit.
- The court order or domestic contract was made on or after June 1, 2015.
- You want to transfer your share of the pension benefit when your court order or domestic contract is finalized.

Do NOT complete this form if the following statements are true:

- You and your spouse have made an unequal division of other assets under the Matrimonial Property Act instead of dividing the pension benefit.
- You and your spouse have a domestic contract or court order that states that you are NOT entitled to receive pension benefits.
- You and your spouse have a domestic contract or court order dated BEFORE June 1, 2015, that provides for the division of the pension entitlement or the final settlement of your family property including the pension entitlement.

Keep in mind:

- You may only transfer your share of the defined benefit from a pension plan when your spouse is given that option.
- The administrator will let you know of your right to transfer when it arises.

How we define spouse, domestic contract, member, former member, owner, and financial institution

Spouse

- The person you are married to.
- The person you are married to, if the marriage hasn't been legally ended.
- The person you thought you were married to, if you are still living together.
- The person you thought you were married to, if you have lived together in the last 12 months.
- The person who is your registered domestic partner under the Vital Statistics Act.
- The person you have been living with in a sexual relationship for at least one year, if neither of you are married to someone else.
- The person you have been living with in a sexual relationship for at least three years, even if one or both are you are married to someone else.

Domestic contract

A domestic contract means

- a written agreement that provides for a division between spouses of a pension benefit, deferred pension, or pension.
- a marriage contract as defined in the Matrimonial Property Act

Member – member of a pension plan

Former member – a person who is entitled to pension benefits and

- is no longer employed by the organization that provides the pension
- is no longer a member of the pension plan

Note: A person who had the right to some pension benefits earned by a spouse and is no longer in a relationship with that spouse is NOT considered a former member.

Owner – the owner of a locked-in retirement account (LIRA) or of a life income fund (LIF).

Financial institution – a bank, a credit union, an insurance company, or any organization that invests money in financial assets
