

Records provided through the Environmental Registry

Please note that the Environmental Registry only pertains to records issued under the Environment Act and its regulations.

- Approvals with Terms and Conditions and notifications issued under the Environment Act and its regulations – This includes current and expired or in-active approvals.
- On-site septic approval files – approval with terms and conditions, as well as all application documents
- Petroleum storage tank files – registration documents, application documents, as well as any correspondence referencing the installation or removal of PST tanks
- Certificates of closure - includes certificates of compliance, records of site condition, declarations of property condition, and associated acknowledgement letters
- Certificates of qualification
- Certificates of variance
- Ministerial orders
- Revocation orders
- Appeals
- Decisions and hearings
- Notices of designation
- Convictions, penalties and other enforcement actions such as directives, summary offence tickets, and warning tickets
- Notice of a charge or lien
- Licenses
- Permits
- Annual reports
- Policies, programs, standards, codes of practice, guidelines, objectives, directives and approval processes