Definitions

Eating Establishment: Any premise in which food is processed and distributed for human consumption.

Food Shop: Any premise in which food is stored and distributed, but not processed, and excludes Eating Establishments as defined above.

Mobile Food Service (https://www.novascotia.ca/nse/food-protection/docs/mobilepolicy_public.pdf): Is a self-contained mobile unit, which is used for the preparation and/or retail dispensing of food products. The unit is capable of moving, or being moved, and is not left in any one location for a period longer than one week. This would include push carts, chip trucks and mobile meat/fish vendors, etc.

Mobile, Lobster Fisher (live lobster only): A lobster fisherman licensed under the Fisheries Act (Canada) for commercial fishing, is required to have a Mobile Food Establishment Permit to sell his own catch of live lobster from a mobile vehicle at roadside. This Permit will contain a condition of “Live Lobster Sales Only”. Fee is required if selling species (fish, scallops, etc.) other than live lobster as this would be considered a Mobile Food Service as described above.

* Process: As defined in the NS Food Safety Regulations, to substantially change or alter the appearance or nature of a food, to combine with an ingredient or additive or to make foods ready-to-eat.

Restaurant: Means a food establishment that for all or part of the year operates in a fixed location and is engaged in providing food services to patrons who

- (i) order and are served while seated and pay after eating, or
- (ii) pay before eating on the premises after ordering, or selecting items at
 - (A) a counter,
 - (B) a food bar, or
 - (C) a cafeteria line;

Business Registry

Law requires all businesses, with some exceptions, operating in Nova Scotia to register with the Registry of Joint Stock Companies. Visit the following for more information:

<http://www.novascotia.ca/snsmr/access/business/registry-joint-stock-companies/who-needs-to-register.asp>

To obtain a permit or license from Nova Scotia Environment, you must apply under your own name or you must be a legal entity registered with the Registry of Joint Stock Companies and have a status of "Active". A legal entity includes "Corporation", "Limited", and "Incorporated" companies, as well as individuals listed within a "Partnership" or that have a registered "Business Name".

These companies, or individuals, shall be identified in the "Applicant" section of the application form.
