

Short-term Rentals Appeals Form

What is this form for?

- Use this form to appeal an enforcement action of the short-term rental program under section 11 of the Short-term Rental Registration Regulations.
- The short-term rental host may appeal a decision within 15 business days of the decision.

How to fill out this form

- Complete all fields of this form and include any attachments.
- E-mail this form and attachments to STRRegistrar@novascotia.ca

Appealable Decisions	Examples of Non-Appealable Decisions
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Denial of short-term rental application• Administrative Penalty, Suspension, Cancellation, Revocation, or other sanction.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Determination of accommodation category• Assessment of fees• Fee refunds• Decisions made by platform operators or municipalities, including whether a host is compliant with bylaws• Condo board consent decisions• Property owner consent decisions

Please note this form must be completed in full.

Failure to fully complete the form will result in the appeal being declined.

All decisions made by the Minister are final.

Short-Term Rentals Appeal Form

APPELLANT INFORMATION
Name
STR Registration Number (if applicable)
Address
Phone
Email
DECISION INFORMATION
Date of Decision
Decision being appealed Attach a copy of the decision being appealed	<input type="checkbox"/> Denial of application for registration <input type="checkbox"/> Administrative Penalty <input type="checkbox"/> Registration was suspended
Appeal Rationale State concisely the grounds for the appeal (the facts and reason or cause, the basis for a belief to support the argument the decision was made in error). Attach additional pages as necessary.
Signature of Appellant
Date	